PRIZE-WINNING V-GARDEN HAS MANY SPECIMENS FOR THE COMMUNITY FAIR

By CATHERYN ELLIOTT.

Home Victory gardeners contacted this week—including a prize winner in a county-wide contest were all getting ready for the V-garden Fair scheduled for August 6 by the Victory Garden Committee and the garden clubs. We saw huge cabbages, enormous squash of one variety and another, marvelous corn of many shapes, sizes and hues, some egg plants nearly as big as footballs and an endless variety of other fruits and vegetables of such size and quantity as to prove the skill and sincerity of our backyard farmers.

Otto Semke of 83 W. Grand View ave., is justly proud of his prize-winning garden. Entered in a contest in which the first prize was $3000, Mr. Semke's 35 by 50 foot garden won a $25.00 bond. This is typically a Victory Garden, for Mr. Semke puts in full time at his business, the garden being somewhat of a hobby, although it is proving a most engrossing one.

Mr. Semke found that the back yard of his home was large enough for the dahlias, roses, fuschias, camellias, gardenias and pelargoniums which Mrs. Semke delights in, but for cabbages, pole beans, and squash more room was needed. The vacant lot just over the hedge invited. Hydrants were installed, a long hose connected and operations began. Last year was an experimental season, but the results were good enough to warrant more varieties being added.

Mr. Semke's present interest is the cabbage patch, with its curly-leaf, its red and its immense white heads. The largest head so far produced was an 8½ pound red one which has already gone into the kraut barrel. The tomatoes are Mrs. Semke's pets, especially the volunteer vine in the rose garden, which has been given overhead watering in complete disregard of all the formulas for successful tomato-raising, but which has produced the largest and the most tomatoes in the garden.

There is corn, the Country Gentleman and yellow Bantam, melons, kohlrabi, okra, pole beans and bunch beans, parsnips, potatoes—both white and sweet, (which Mrs. Semke laughingly confided had been started in a vase on the wall), and five kinds of squash, including the Hubbard.

The finest squash is the Hungarian zucchini which Mr. Semke is tending with jealous care expecting it to win a prize in the August town fair. Cucumbers are taking the place of the early lettuce, radishes and turnips and grows near the plot just being readied for cauliflower. The

Faithful Service
Wins AWS Wings
for Woman Lookout

Mrs. Archie Edwards found a pair of Army wings awaiting her at the postoffice here when she and Mr. Edwards came down Monday from their lookout tower high up on Vetter peak. In addition to her work as assistant to her husband as a U. S. Forest Service lookout, to which she devotes 12 hours a day, Mrs. Edwards is a member of the Air Warning Service and the wings she now proudly wears bears the service initials being awarded for long and faithful service. The Edwards will return to their lofty roost to-day.

Fred Lewis Leaves
Police Force

Officer Fred Lewis is leaving the Sierra Madre police department. Now on his vacation he has resigned effective August 1 when he will take over the business of the Sierra Madre Ice Company, now operated by Craig McLaughlin. His successor on the police force will probably not be named until the council meeting next Tuesday, or later.

whole garden is shaded and guarded by a row of stately sunflowers maturing for the pigeons which coo and strut in the pen back of the house.

Homers and Silver Kings produce squash for the Semke's guests, while a small flock of Rhode Island red and Plymouth Rock chickens provide the Semke table with its breakfast eggs, and gives Mrs. Semke a little pocket-money besides.

When asked as to the need for fertilizer, Mr. Semke replied: "Yes, each time I take out a crop I spend in fertilizer to the depth of the spade, for if I put nothing in I take nothing out." When questioned as to the cost of fertilizing, he replied that he has used $1.50 with this season making the cost of feeding a Victory Garden almost negligible.

Interest in City's Youth
Is GrowingCommunity Fund Increases
Year by Year with
More Contributions

In allotting the proceeds of the recent community fund campaign here among the city's youth organizations this week, officers of the Kiwanis Club were encouraged to find that Sierra Madreans have come to more fully appreciate the need of diversion for the boys and girls in this city off the beaten track. Each year since the first community fund was raised in 1938 a larger sum has been realized and the number of contributors has jumped up.

This year with a quota of $1615 there were 319 contributors and $1787 has been raised so far, with pledges still outstanding. In 1938 there were only 151 contributors and only $549.50 was raised. There was a gradual increase each year in both the size of the fund and the number of interested citizens and in 1942 a fund of $1504.90 was subscribed by 265 contributors.

The fund this year will be divided among the Boy Scout Troops, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Friendly Indians, Y. M. C. A. of this area and the Kiwanis recreation center in East Montecito ave., in accordance with the budgets submitted for them, to be used in carrying on their character building activities.

Boys Make Good Use of Vacations; Guard Against Fires

A group of teen age Sierra Madre boys are making good use of their summer vacations. Five of them are serving in mountain camps as assistants to the Forest Rangers and fire watchers. Bob Marshall, Joe Cor and Jack Williams are located at the Ranger's camp just above the city line. Harry Lovejoy and Frank Shippey are at the Ranger station at the Red Box divide back in the mountains. Others are scattered through the mountains at camps between here and Chilo and the San Gabriel canyon. All have a regular schedule of duties to perform and get leave of absence from the camp only once every 27 days.

Marvelous

Sierra Madreans have enjoyed summer resort weather during the week probably unmatched anywhere in the world, with cool mornings, bright, sunny afternoons and marvelous nights. Temperatures have been:

To Complete
Plans for the V FairInterest in August 6 Event
Puts Many Decisions up to Garden Committee

A meeting of the Sierra Madre Victory Garden committee will be held this evening at the home of F. D. R. Moote, chairman, to complete arrangements for the Victory Garden community fair to be held August 6. On his return from a brief vacation at the Moote ranch in the San Jacinto mountains Mr. Moote expressed satisfaction with the interest being taken in this first event of the kind ever held here.

Location of the fair will depend largely upon the committee's decision on whether to include exhibits of chickens and rabbits along with prize specimens from the scores of local Victory Gardens. The choice lies between the grammar school grounds and the city park. Some members of the committee and representatives of the garden clubs believe flowers would lend needed color and interest to the fair and since many Victory gardens are adorned with blooms of gorgeous beauty and perfection they will probably be included, since it is to be a one-day event.

The idea of serving an old fashioned farm dinner during the fair has been considered but it is feared food rationing will rule out this feature which was presented with the idea of adding a social touch.

A spirit of rivalry between Victory gardeners here and in neighboring communities might have been injected into the affair for inquiries have come from backyard farmers in Arcadia, Temple City and Altadena, wanting to know whether entries from their gardens would be welcomed. It is believed probable the committee will decide to confine the entry list to Sierra Madre gardens. And a carnival company now playing in El Monte wanted to know whether it would be privileged to operate a merry-go-round and one or two other carnival attractions.

Baby Boy Presents
Rare Problem for Hospital Medicos

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blanke of East Pasadena were the happy parents of a baby boy born July 1st. He tipped the scales at six pounds when born, but the little fellow has distinguished himself even at this early date by presenting the medical profession with a rare problem. His digestive apparatus was not normal. The baby's stomach was inverted, and the intestines twisted in such a way that two operations have been necessary, but the baby, Christopher Allen Blanke, is doing nicely now, and although few such cases have been known to live, the doctors hold out confident hopes for his complete recovery.

Margaret Anglin
in Pasadena Soon

"The earned triumph of a great actress" is what an eastern critic wrote after seeing Margaret Anglin, distinguished actress, play the part of Mrs. Malaprop in Sheridan's "The Rivals" which is scheduled for Pasadena Civic Auditorium Tuesday evening, August 3. One of the biggest stage successes in the East last winter, the ageless comedy comes to Pasadena for one night only as a Ware-Hazelton attraction.

Probably few actresses anywhere have had as brilliant a career as Margaret Anglin. At 17 she was discovered by the producer, Charles Frohman, and began a stage career the account of which now fills four columns of "Who's Who in the Theater."

Skilled actress though she is, critics claim that Miss Anglin's great charm lies in her beautiful eyes and golden voice.

Public Invited to Open House at New
Red Cross Rooms

Friday, July 30th, members of the surgical dressings unit of the local Red Cross will be hostesses at an open house for those interested in the work. Those in charge are very proud of the newly renovated and redecorated quarters, and are very anxious for their friends to see the place where they work every Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 to 4:30 and on Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 10:00.

These energetic women have already completed more than 900 surgical dressings although they started very late in this phase of the war effort. Because there is such an urgent need for these dressings the women are urging their friends, and all interested in doing their bit for the boys in service, to give as much of their time as they can spare to help. They hope that many will be interested in inspecting the new quarters and the surgical dressings and garments which will be on display at that time.

High School Camp,
an Experiment, is Decided Success

Sierra Madre's delegation to the Congressional youth group camp at Arbolado in the San Bernardino mountains has returned, pleased with the distinction of having had the largest group in attendance. It was said to have contributed most largely to success of the camp which was in the nature of an experiment. Intended as a camp for people of high school age, it was a new project. Following suggestions given by religious, social and governmental authorities the Junior High Camp is assuming increased importance all over the United States. This is held to be the crucial age in

Pvt. Charles P. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Smith of 196 W. Montecito ave., who formerly worked at the Douglas plant at Long Beach, has been transferred from the Army basic training camp at Amarillo, Texas, to a radio and radar school at some point in the U. S. Pvt. Smith is an expert electrician and radio operator who is well known here.

A letter just received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mitchell of So. Hermosa ave., tells them that their son, Tech. Sgt. Tom Mitchell, is doing well at the South Pacific base at which he is stationed.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Lovejoy, of W. Grand View ave. that their son, Sgt. George Russell, Jr., has been given a furlough sufficiently long enough to allow him to make the trip from the Southwest Pacific where he has been on active duty for almost two years so that he may visit his family and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Al W. Miller of 119 W. Grandview ave. accompanied by Miss Tommy Ann Yarnell, Carolyn and Al Miller Jr., visited their son Howard Wallace Miller on Sunday. He is in training with the Marine Corps at Camp Mathews, San Diego. He will be through boot camp on Aug. 1st after which he expects to return to Sierra Madre on furlough.

Evidently written a few days before the invasion of Sicily began, Sgt. Henry Shippey wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey of Neher drive, that his Ranger battalion, then in Africa, was expecting to "have some fun in a few days" and that they would probably read about it before his letter arrived here. From which his parents take it that he was among the first Americans to set foot on Italian soil,

Regard for Enemy
Fighting Ability

Minus his left arm and with a badly injured foot suffered when the Cruiser San Francisco made its daring dash into and destroyed a Japanese flotilla in the Guadalcanal area, Chief Boatswain's Mate Joseph F. Nickson of the Navy, now a resident of Canyon Park, has a healthy respect for the fighting ability of the slant-eyed enemy in the East. He warned the Kiwanis Club at its luncheon Tuesday that the West coast must be prepared for Japanese air raids calculated to lower the American civilian morale.

In typical sailor fashion he answered questions fired at him during the luncheon. These raids, he predicts, will be carried on by suicide squads, for the fanaticism of the Japs is unparalleled and death means nothing to Jap fighting men.

He says that the Japs are good fighters, their equipment is superb, and their ships fast. He feels convinced that they will leave nothing undone to disrupt American morale.

Nickson was a member of the San Francisco's crew and recounted that she has never been torpedoed although it has encountered more than a hundred submarines.

and they are, of course, anxiously awaiting word from him.

Cpl. Johnny Grippi is right in the midst of plenty of action in the New Guinea area, he writes his mother, Mrs. Cosmo Grippi of No. Mount Trail ave. His last V-mail letter followed a bunch of American Beauty roses he wired as a surprise gift. Most recent letter from Junior Grippi stationed at Samoa Naval base tells of seeing a movie there in which he recognized Pat West, former Sierra Madre member of the Hollywood movie colony.

Pfc John M. Senour has been selected as one of the most rugged and mentally alert soldiers of the Timber Wolf division at Camp Adair, Oregon. Complete returns on the "Wolf Scouts" tests which have been in progress during the past month were revealed by divisional headquarters when it was announced that out of the 317 soldiers in the division who were selected to run the gamut of the grueling three-day test, 103 of the men were rewarded with the highly prized and coveted title. Thirty-one of the tough and hardened men were classified as superior and 72 as satisfactory. The highly honored title of "Wolf Scouts" was bestowed on only those men who survived the six-point program initiated by General Bryant E. Moore, assistant divisional commander of the "Timber Wolves."

W. H. Steelman, Jr., Fireman 1st Class of the Navy, has returned to sea duty after spending a seven-day leave with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Steelman, of 62 E. Highland Avenue. He was joined here by his wife from Brenerton, Wash. This is his first leave since Pearl Harbor and he wears a bar with three gold and one silver stars, that tells he has participated in eight major battles in the Pacific.

Stores Here High
Mark on Ceilings

Sierra Madre stores have been given a 96 mark by the district War Price and Rationing Board for their conformance to schedules of ceiling prices and ration point regulations. F. H. Yost, chairman of the price ceiling panel of the Monrovia board, said following a meeting of the board Friday, that local merchants were to be congratulated on their record. A similar mark was given the Monrovia and Duarte stores. The board met with store owners where errors had been found. Local stores were checked by Frank Spencer and Marjorie O'Donnell.

of Local, Arcadia and Monrovia Contingent

Ninety-four enlisted men and two commissioned officers have been mustered into the Sierra Madre, Monrovia, and Arcadia units of the California State Guard. Impressive ceremonies, held at the U. S. Forest Service Station in Arcadia included roll-call, inspection, and passing in review.

Capt. Mark L. Lillard of the Guard officiated as mustering officer. The three units are to be known as Company C of the 4th Battalion, 29th Regiment. Maj. John S. Staats, commanding the 4th Battalion, who was present at the ceremonies, announced that Lieut. Arthur H. Embree of Sierra Madre, veteran of World War I, and commander of the local unit, would be the commanding officer of the Sierra Madre, Monrovia and Arcadia units which comprise Company C.

Thirty-six Sierra Madreans made up the unit from here, as against twenty-seven at this time in 1942. Many of these men have been members of the local unit since May 1941. Enlistments, according to Lieut. Embree, are still being received, since many men are realizing the excellent opportunity afforded by the California State Guard for training. Equipment and uniforms are to be furnished. The local unit meets at the city hall Wednesday evenings at 8 p. m. Those interested in further information may make inquiry at the city hall.

New 'A' Gas Coupons
Must Be Endorsed

Motorists must endorse all coupons in their new A books before using them to-day or thereafter or they will lose part or all of their basic gasoline allowances.

This was the sharp warning from Samuel Leask, Jr., Southland OPA Director.

"Possession of any 'A' coupons which have not been endorsed on their face with the motorist's license number plus the name of the state in which the car is registered will result in plenty of trouble for the car operator. We are determined to prevent diversion of unendorsed coupons into 'black market' channels and insistence upon prior endorsement of coupons is a major means of accomplishing this purpose," Mr. Leask declared.

Mrs. Schneeberger
Here for Operation

Mrs. May Schneeberger, formerly of 189 Hermosa, and Past Worthy Matron of the O. E. S. chapter here, has been staying with her daughter in Alhambra since the school vacation began. Tuesday, however, Mrs. Schneeberger entered the Garfield Hospital at Alhambra for an operation.

Principal Leaves for La Jolla
Through Contract Here
Runs Until 1945

Gerald Smith has resigned as superintendent and principal of the Sierra Madre grammar school and is preparing to move with his family to La Jolla where in September he will act as counselor and teach social science in the high schools of that city. His unexpected resignation was presented to the local board at its meeting Tuesday evening. His contract here will not expire until 1945. The school board will interview applicants for the positions he is vacating at the school building at 7:30 this evening.

Members of the school board say that since coming to Sierra Madre four years ago, Mr. Smith has done much to raise the standard of the school. Chief among his accomplishments they say has been the stabilizing of the seventh and eighth grades here. Children who leave the eighth grade from Sierra Madre enter high school with as fine a background of experience as those who have attended Junior High School in many cities. There has also been added a home economics department for the girls, and a course in shop work for the boys. Instrumental music and an orchestra have been another of Mr. Smith's achievements, but the establishing of a school library with a full-time librarian has been the latest and in some ways the most outstanding of his achievements made during the present regime.

Mr. Smith, who came to Sierra Madre from Redondo Beach, took his master's degree in education at Stanford, and had charge of schools in Vancouver, Wash., for several years. He has been an active member of the local Kiwanis Club here. Mrs. Smith has been consistently a help-mate to him in his work, and in her work with the P. T. A. and the Congregational Church.

Garden Party

Farmers Coddling Entries
For the Event

There will be a gay, carnival air about the benefit garden party being held by the Sierra Madre Bundles of America chapter Saturday afternoon and evening at the beautiful Italia Mia estate of Miss Thomasella Graham, with a large attendance expected from Flintridge, Pasadena and other San Gabriel Valley towns. Supper will be served and there will be valuable prizes, including paintings by Geraldine Birch of Pasadena and Alfred J. Dewey, of this city. There will be dancing and carnival attractions.

Commander Corydon Wassell, hero of the escape of wounded soldiers from Java when the Japs captured that island, will be guest of honor. He will tell of that daring dash during the afternoon. Gen. Bethel Simpson is sending officers and 25 men from Camp Santa Anita to represent him. Sylvian Robert, a Parisian opera singer, will sing.

Sponsors of the party are Mrs. Clinton A. Pierce, of this city, wife of Gen. Pierce, captured by the Japs when Corregidor fell and now a prisoner of war; General and Mrs. E. C. Young; C. E. Rappolle and J. W. Storm, retired lieutenant commanders of the Navy, and Capt. E. G. Everett. Mrs. Mary Goodfellow, chairman of the local Bundles of America chapter, is chairman of the committee on arrangements, assisted by Mrs. John Munger, chairman of the Pasadena chapter. The gates will be opened at 2 o'clock and dinner service will begin at 5:30.

HORSE RACES DIVERSION AT A FAMILY REUNION

All roads lead to Sierra Madre might have been the slogan coined by Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Gerke of 602 Mariposa Sunday afternoon when a baker's dozen relatives from various parts of the East gathered at the Gerke home for a talk-fest and pot-luck dinner. As honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Wyneken and Barbara and Robert who have recently moved to Van Nuys from Fort Wayne, Indiana. Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Wyneken, were Mrs. Mathilda Dettman and Miss Emma Prange of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mayer and Dianne of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Burck and Shirley of Huntington Park and Richard, Carolyn, and Ruth Gerke. All of the guests were related to each other and to the hosts who had not seen the Wynekens in the last ten years. A feature of the evening's entertainment was a miniature horse race which took place on the living-room track, with wild betting on the various entries and corresponding hilarity from the backers. The race-track is a device of Mr. Gerke's, the horses being made from wood by Mrs. Gerke's father, and the results of the race being in several ways more satisfactory than those which were run in former years at nearby racing establishments.

CANYON PARK THIMBLE CLUB HAS SESSION

The Sierra Madre Canyon Thimble Club which meets every Friday afternoon in a friendly social gathering met last Friday with Mrs. May Ostrum of Vista Circle Drive. Those present were Mrs. P. S. Linville, Mrs. Topping, Mrs. Cuddy, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Eddie Punkhouser, Mrs. L. H. Heath, Mrs. W. D. Richards and Mrs. Mrs. Block. The ladies do sewing for the Red Cross as well as personal sewing, but the main object is to keep life as normal as is possible under the present conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Convers L. Twycross of 123 S. Baldwin were guests Saturday evening at a complimentary dinner given to Mrs. Mary D. Briggs at the University Club at 613 S. Hope St. Los Angeles. The occasion was Mrs. Briggs' reappointment to the position of postmaster at Los Angeles. The dinner, given by Anson Ford, Congressman for the district, who made a congratulatory speech to Mrs. Briggs which she answered in her customary happy manner.

A recent charming event was the bridge foursome luncheon of the Pi Beta Phi of the Pasadena Alumni Association given by Mrs. Kelley of Monrovia at Eaton's Santa Anita. This foursome is in the nature of a philanthropic affair, for the winnings are donated to a pet charity of the sorority, a settlement school in

City Escapes Many Brush Fires Due to Watchfulness

Sierra Madre has been singularly fortunate in the matter of dreaded brush fires so far this season. But it appears not to have been entirely due to good luck. The lot cleaning this year was especially well supervised because of the extra heavy growth of grass and weeds due to the exceptionally heavy rainfall during the winter. Also Fire Marshal William Lees and members of the fire department have been continually on the hunt for fire hazards on the property of local residents, resulting in the abatement of dozens of them. Many nearby valley cities have not been so fortunate, but the danger there was not so great because the are not so close to the Angelus forest, excepting in the case of Azusa, which has had a number of fires, as many as three or four in a week.

SON BORN TO FORMER SIERRA MADRE GIRL

Lieut. and Mrs. William Walker, Jr. of Burlingame, Cal., are the proud parents of a nine pound son, Randolph Charles Walker, born July 9. Mrs. Walker the former Mary Ellen Tarter of Sierra Madre niece of Mrs. Rudolph R. Hartman of 460 N. Lima st., is doing nicely. Her husband is a lieutenant junior grade with the navy in the Aleutians.

the Tennessee mountains. After the luncheon the ladies drove to Monrovia to the home of Mrs. Kelley where a pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Kelley's guests were Mrs. Larsen of San Gabriel, Mrs. Kenneth Jones of Altadena, and Mrs. John Craig-miles James of 38 E. Grand View.

Mrs. George O. Daily, of 105 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. was the hostess last Monday to a group of school-girl friends from the East. Mrs. Mary Kemmel of Ill., Mrs. George Henfling of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Mrs. Richard Landt of St. Louis who had been visiting relatives in Berkeley, accompanied by Mrs. Elvira Woerman of San Bernardino, spent the day with Mrs. Daily.

The Nation's Capital leads the entire nation in the ratio of 4 to 1 in the disposal of intoxicating liquor. Emil Hurje in the Pathfinder says he got the figures from the Distilled Spirits Institute. The runner-up is Nevada. Increase of population will not explain the added consumption of liquor in Washington, for it is per capita consumption of which Mr. Hurje speaks. In 1934 the DC's per capita sales were 2.40 gallons, whereas in 1942 they are 5.02, or more than a hundred per cent increase. Arkansas occupies the lowest place in the liquor scale, the country over, with .57 gallons per capita consumed, while Texas and Tennessee are in a tie for the next lowest place, with .60 gallons each.

For the first time in history, the State's annual cash farm income exceeded one billion dollars in the past year, according to the ledger. Reason: California's farmers, in spite of almost insuperable handicaps, have stepped up their production to feed millions more than in ordinary years. Their produce daily goes to the

Who are non-essential travelers?

You are the judge of whether or not your trip is essential—and your judgment is what our government is relying upon.

Please consider these points when you think of traveling on the railroads this summer and for the duration:

1. Your trip may take a Pullman berth or chair car seat needed by men in uniform traveling under orders.
2. Your trip may delay war workers, not in uniform, in reaching their vital jobs.
3. Your trip may deprive men and women in the service of a furlough trip to visit their homefolks: If you do take a trip, plan for it in advance, travel light, consider taking a box lunch to avoid delayed meals in the diners, and make up your mind to put up with certain inconveniences and crowded conditions.

WHAT ABOUT VACATION TRAVEL?

Vacations should be spread out over the year, not confined to summer months.

A vacation trip should be confined to one round trip only, starting and returning on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday.

Travel in chair cars whenever possible, and please carry only one piece of luggage.

Consult your Santa Fe Agent about your travel plans. You'll find his friendly advice helpful.

STARTLING

The startling report of Congressman Albert J. Engle, a member of the House Appropriations Committee, revealing that war workers with little or no experience are being paid higher wages than the admirals in command of the United States fleet, or the generals in charge of our hottest battle-fronts, turns the spotlight on a condition which we all knew existed, but which we hadn't known in such appalling detail.

Ludicrous examples cited by Mr. Engle, a one-man investigating committee, included:

Machine gun assemblers making $4,700 to $8,500 a year, while the base pay of Lieut.-Gen. Breton V. Somervell is only $8,500, although he supervises the entire Army supply system "from tanks and 16-inch guns down to pistols." A former 5-and-10-cent store ribbon clerk with two to six weeks' experience, making $3,380, while the pay of an Army major is only $3,000. Former farm boys "who last year were hauling manure and digging potatoes" making more in a year than the total value of the farm owned by their parents. An assistant superintendent in a government arsenal making $11,500 a year, while the base pay of Generals MacArthur, Eisenhower and Marshall is only $10,000.

Congressman Engle, blaming the soaring spiral of wage extravagance on the Roosevelt Administration, said, bluntly, that it resulted from a policy of measuring the progress of war production by the sums expended, instead of ships launched, aircraft completed and munitions manufactured. And he declared, quite correctly, that present runaway prices, bringing the threat of national disaster from inflation, are an outgrowth of such wage policies.

The man-in-the-middle in all this, of course, is the average American — the fellow whose pay envelope is still at pre-war level, but whose grocery bill has gone out of sight. And he also emphasized that every man in the armed forces, fighting for $50 a month or little more, will help pay the bill — in post-war taxes — for these excesses for years to come. It is a tragic commentary on how badly our war economy has been mis-managed.

FEW MOURNERS

Death, ordinarily, is a sad affair, but the death of the National Youth Administration, recently ordered by Congress, is the exception that proves the rule. The burial of NYA, with its multi-million-dollar overhead, will be a happy funeral — at least from the standpoint of the taxpayer.

An overgrown child of depression, which had refused to grow up and accept the responsibilities of adulthood, the NYA still continued to spend millions providing "opportunities" for youth when the Nation's youngsters had long since gone to war, or found jobs in war factories.

Somehow, we can't find it in our hearts to grieve about the passing of NYA. We only hope that it is the forerunner of other and bigger funerals for other depression-departments which are still doling out millions and billions in an era when time has passed them by.

UNCENSORED

By LEONE BAXTER

Six months ago a total of 56,100,000 Americans were either in uniform or at work behind the lines in the nation's industries, business and agriculture. During the next six months that figure must be raised to 62,500,000!

By December, nearly 10 million will be in the services of Uncle Sam; about 30 millions will be turning out war materials and over 22 million will be producing civilian goods and services.

Out of what limbo are the six million new workers coming — to fill the wartime labor gap and soothe the nation's employment headache?

"The chief answer to the manpower shortage," declares the National Federation of Business and Professional Women, "is woman-power" — and proves the premise with a program of practical tips on how women may make themselves useful in correcting the deficiency.

Conscription of women can be avoided, the organization believes, only if women themselves recognize the critical need and respond voluntarily. Already, women have done pretty well. Almost two million came out of their homes to go to work during the first year of the war. By the end of the year, three million more are needed to replace men and to take over new war jobs.

With the crux not yet reached, the need for both men and women workers is yet so great that some attempt at conscription legislation is looked for at the next Congressional session.

Pointed out as reasons often given why women have not made the strides in industry and business that they might have, are these: Women's greater rate of absenteeism and turnover, need for more training, need for plant changes to fit women's lesser physical strength, their unprofessional attitude toward the job, lack of adaptability by older workers, and high illness record.

On the other hand, the club cites the reluctance of some employers to hire women even in view of war needs, the common failure to grant equal pay for comparable work, unwillingness to hire older women, to promote women or give them positions of authority.

Of some public interest is the Business Women's program for investigating facts and formulating community plans in conjunction with other groups. Of interest, not simply in its outline for action, but in its viewing of the problem not as the sole responsibility of Federal agencies, but that of the home folk as well.

The... Watch Tower

By Pertley Poore Sheehan

JUST CAN'T HELP IT, but there are times — plenty of them nowadays — when we get to questioning — not denying, mind you, but questioning — a lot of those things we were brought up to accept as beyond question and to question which even would be a deadly sin. Like what, for example? Well, the power of prayer. Or, say, that remark of St. Paul's about our knowing that all things work together for good — at any rate, to them that love God. You know! — mothers all over the world, Chinese and Russian, Japanese, German, Hindu and Black African mothers as well as white Americans, each praying for some boy; and that boy himself at that very moment getting shot, getting drowned — or battered to pulp under a landing barge. "All things work together for good . . ." Yes? Ask him! Ask her!

AND YET — AND YET! — something always keeps coming along to nudge you back. Into a sort of adjustment, so to speak — an acceptance of Life Wisdom, Faith, wholly beyond reason. Often in the most aerial and seemingly irrelevant ways — as in the impact of pure beauty or innocence when you've happened to notice, in some moment of clear perception, a certain flower, or bird, or baby, misty mountain or sailing cloud. Faint and fleeting and wholly beyond reason, yet sufficient to snatch you — at least for the moment — from your trance of questioning. To recall what Woody Guthrie, the Okie troubadour, said, as to why — Why! — he kept on wandering when he might have settled down and got rich. He couldn't tell why, "but something inside of me must have known."

OR THE heartier nudge of some beloved and respected master. As when we ran plump into this paragraph by Anatole France: "But remember I was happy, and that happy creature never do know much about life." (He was speaking about his childhood. He continues.) "Pain, she's the great teacher of men. It's she who has taught them the arts, poetry, right conduct; she who has ennobled their heroism with pity; it is she who has given a worth to life by letting life be offered as a sacrifice; it is she, Pain, august and good, who has merged infinity and love." And there be they who've called Anatole France an atheist. Liars! "All things work together for the good" . . . Pain, especially, you brothers, mothers, and maybe you'd better believe this when you pray. One of the world's greatest Teachers did.

BUT THE NUDGE that started us just now along this line of thought was the life story of Edgar Cayce we've been reading — his biography by Thomas Sugrue, under the title: "There is a River." (From the 46th Psalm, "There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God . . ." A new book, not long off the respected press of Henry Holt &

What They Say ---

RAY LYMAN WILBUR, Chancellor, Stanford University — "When things go easy, easy becomes the rule. Ease leads to indolence, indolence to indifference, and indifference inevitably to tragedy."

DAN C. MCKINNEY, Secy., California Cattlemen's Association — "The determination of OPA officials and others high in the government to pursue policies which result simply in a more and more acute meat shortage, leads to but one conclusion: That they plan it that way, and for a purpose."

PHILIP JORDAN, London Chronicle correspondent speaking here — "There's no doubt, once Germany is beaten, Russia will hit the Japs."

Co.; a long book, 446 pages; almost every one of those pages touched — even imbued — with pain; and yet — and yet! — as lit up with wonder and miracle and dreams and visions, a sort of unearthly heroism as, say, the Book of Daniel, or Genesis even. Not that well written, perhaps; but as honest, as straightforward. And — who knows! — perhaps for some questioning soul, that worth while.

EDGAR CAYCE — a "Jude the Obscure" of the scientific-religious world. He's still living, getting on now toward seventy, and all his life long a home-spun, old-American — what shall we say? — Sunday-school teacher? — Healer? — Medium? — Mystic? He was — and still is, thank the Lord! — all of these things. But, reading this simply written, forthright, minutely documented story of his life, with its curiously compelling fascination, there grows on one the feeling that here is the story of a misplaced angel, with all of an angel's uncanny, superhuman powers, these freely given to all-comers in utter self-forgetfulness; yet these powers fettered and balked, time without number, by sheer human befuddlement.

IN SPITE OF WHICH, such a story of courage, faith, patience, and moral triumph, as Continued on Galley FOUR . . . make every hero-story of your old Bible live again. Or, hold on! — we may be getting a trifle too dithrambic. Why our fascination? Is it not, just possibly, that in reading this story of Edgar Cayce — so utterly human yet so nearly God — we were, in a manner, watching the pageant and the revelation of each his own life, present or to come? An impossible story, some will say. But here's proof, your heart keeps telling you, that with God nothing shall be impossible. A great hour, this present one; and here a book in which as if the Rock of Israel spake again.

★ Somewhere at sea a tanker lies fueling a destroyer. The long fuel lines that link them swing with the ships as they ride the deep-water swells. Pumps throb in a steady rhythm. Oil pours into the destroyer's bunker fuel tanks.

It is oil, quite likely from the fields of Southern California, and pumped perhaps from the depths of the earth by strong, silent electric motors powered by Edison. Electric power helps get the most production out of a well. It is easy on the long sucker rods, it is safe and easy to control.

Edison power service and the oil industry are doing a war job together, as they operated together in the days of peace.

We have examined the balance sheet of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Pasadena as of June 30, 1943, and the statements of operations, undivided profits and reserves for the semi-annual period then ended, have reviewed the system of internal control and the accounting procedures of the association and have examined or tested accounting records of the association and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate.
